The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-6, 10, 12, 13, 15, 19, 21-26, 30, 32, 34 and 38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Oxman et al (US 5,596,025).

Oxman et al teach a dental impression curable material with cure-indicating dye in abstract and at col. 23, line 41 to col. 24, line 43. The color of the composition after curing is lighter than before curing (col. 15, lines 12-18). The use of filler and solvent in said curable material is taught in example 6. Table 8a shows the use of silica filler (Aerosil) and catalyst meets the instant initiator. The instantly recited properties are inherent in the composition of Oxman et al, and applicant has a burden to show otherwise.

Thus, the invention lacks novelty.

Claims 40-59 are allowed.

Claims 7-9, 11, 14, 16-18, 20, 27-29, 31, 33, 35-37 and 39 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. US Pat. 4,165,390 (col. 1, lines 7-9), 6,162,931 (abstract and table 1) and 2004/0054195 A1 (abstract) teach a xanthen group containing dyes, but neither teach nor suggest their use in a polymerizable composition containing filler.

US 2006/0106458 A1 teaches the instant dye (H-Nu470 and H-Nu535) and their use as initiators for crosslinking a macromonomer in [0056] to [0060], but neither teach nor suggest the use of an additional initiator and filler.
